Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

March 25, 2002 LB 977

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then it wouldn't take an administrative assistant even. All it would take is somebody who can write, and I'm not trying to be funny. But if I understand you correctly, all that we're talking about is a signature.

SENATOR AGUILAR: A valid signature.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So if the director...if the director designated the deputy, and, say, there's a family emergency and the deputy couldn't be there, the deputy...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN PRESIDING

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...could tell the janitor, this is something that has to be done. When it comes across the desk, you just sign it. That could be done under this law, isn't that true?

SENATOR AGUILAR: I would not think that would take place.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: There is nothing in here that would stop it, is it? Whoever...whomever is designated by the deputy director can do this.

SENATOR AGUILAR: Yes, but I guess I don't understand why the deputy director would designate somebody that isn't authorized to do...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Because the deputy director has an emergency. Maybe a spouse is pregnant or if it's a woman, maybe the spouse was in a serious accident, is in the hospital, and the deputy has to be gone and the director is gone. And the deputy is going out the door and says to the janitor, there are papers on my desk, go sign them. That could be done under the law and whatever the janitor signed would be as binding as if the director or the deputy director signed it, under the language of this bill. Show me any language in this bill that would stop...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time.
